

Bullseye

My baby boy Bullseye,
we all miss you dearly :(

I never ever thought we would lose you so soon.
You were our first pet and had spent 13 years together.

We watched you grow old as you watched us grow older.
I feel like a massive chunk of my heart has been ripped out!

I know your are in a better place up in doggy heaven probably growling at all the other dogs. We all think and look at your pictures every single day.
We miss you millions my puppy :(

R.I.P Bullseye until the day we meet again.
Take care up in heaven
