Little Lady Chapman

Little Lady (Love Ferret Mama, Jill & Jenny) xxx

Love Ferret Aunty Jenny - LL you helped me overcome my fears of bitey ferrets. Your gentle nature, and love for all gave me much joy in every moment I spent with you. I will never forget the time I was looking after you and your brothers and sisters, and you decided to do a vanishing act! I hunted high and low, and gave the biggest sigh of relief when you looked at me from under a towel, behind a drawer unit! Cheeky monkey!
Love you always xxx

Lil lady, your skilful swagger, your confident strut, your ability to teach the kitties, five times your size, who was boss, is an inspiration for ladies everywhere.
You weren't just a ferret, you were a broad, a pink lady if you're watching 'Grease'.
But even Rizzo had a soft side, as she exposed in that heartfelt song somewhere near the end of the movie.
When you cuddled in my sweater I was the happiest lady in the world.
Thanks for being my broad. I'll always remember those 'yeah, and?' eyes.

You were absolutely perfect in every way, you weren't just my companion, you were my child, I love you so much and rest in peace my little angel. I love you.
