

Gemma Haigh

Leaving is never easy, especially so when you have been so loved and cared for by a doting Dad, as John clearly was.

Gemma, we have never seen mans' best friend be such a best friend. We know Chip will be delighted to see you again you'll both be looking down on your Dad, taking care of him through the tough times now and in the good times he will certainly have again.

Finally, a quote from Ghandi
"The greatness of a nation and its moral progress can be judged by the way its animals are treated".
Our nation must be amazingly "great"
and "moral" world leaders!

Sleep well, Gemma.
Love, Mike & Shaun. xxx
