

Gemma Haigh

Its now been a month since I had to say goodbye to my little girl , and I miss her so much.

I think of the great times that we had together, sixteen years is a long time, but the routine has now changed. I no longer get up to take you out, I no longer cook you chicken or sausages, I no longer rush to get home, I no longer see your little wagging tail every morning.

I miss you Gemma, cos you're not here, but your in my head, my heart and my mind, and you will always be my little lady.

Love Always, Dad xxx
