Spider Brooke

Spider was not "just a cat.."
From the beginning he was different, special, unique and loving - and faithful, above all.

Every so often an animal-human partnership becomes a great friendship.

It was obvious that Spider and his master were just that - the very best of friends, and always will be.

