Viley Lewis

My little cat Viley went missing last Wednesday. After ringing up all the places I could think of and putting you on all the lost cats profiles, I rung up Cats Protection. The lady there told me that the best thing to do was to phone my local vets. I hadn't even thought of that.
I rang my local vet and they said that a cat had been brought in matching your description and sadly you had to be put to sleep as you were hit by a car and there was nothing the vet could do.

I went and saw you today and said my goodbyes. It's the hardest thing I've ever had to do in my life. You are going to be cremated tomorrow and I can't wait to have you home where you belong. My house is so empty without you and all your brothers and sisters are missing you. I'm going to miss your little face, your cuddles and your purrs as you were such a mummy's girl. You have took a piece of my heart with you and I hope you realise just how much I loved you and how much I'm going to miss you.

So sleep tight my little princess and never forget that I love you and I will always miss you... R.I.P my beautiful angel and I hope your free of pain and you will have a great time over the Rainbow Bridge with all your other little friends.

Until we meet again princess, love and miss you loads...
Love Mummy
