Ollie Phillips

To my beautiful boy Ollie,

Never did I think I could love someone so unconditionally, but then you came along and everything changed! With your beautiful loving brown eyes and your loyal and quirky personality you really did brighten up our lives for almost 15 years, now nothing is the same, you are missing and the world is a darker place, you were the sunshine of our lives! And as they say you were always my favourite hello and definitely my hardest goodbye!

Until we meet again 'GG' have fun chasing rabbits over the rainbow bridge.

Love you with all our hearts,
Mummy, Daddy, Robert and Your Loving Sister Sammy girl.
