Rommel IV

Rommel was a wonderful,
gentle and very affectionate German Shepherd.

He was my best friend and constant companion
and my heart is broken beyond repair.
He was only seven and half years old but had this awful disease of the spinal cord
and there was no cure.
There is no cure for the pain I feel.