In the last few months when Zoe's pace of life had slowed down considerably I realised she wanted not much more than my time, love and cuddles which she appreciated and I was more than happy to give her my all in caring for her.

Zoe has left a huge void with her peaceful passing on the evening of the 20th February 2016.

I adored Zoe and I know she was ever thankful to me for giving her a new life and that she adored me too, our bond was unbreakable. Zoe, my first rescue dog, my big beautiful brown bear, she changed my entire world and I'm so very proud and lucky to have shared 7 wonderful years with her.
