

Sophie

My Darling, beautiful little girl,
I don't know why you were taken so young, but it's something I will have to find a way of living with.

You brought so many people so much joy and happiness in your short life and you were my everything.

I look forward to the day that we meet again and we will be together for all eternity.

Until then, goodnight my baby, my pickle pops,
my pud pud.

I love you.
