DIOR

We can't believe you have grown your angle wings,
we weren't ready for you to go.

Our hearts are broken you gave us the best 12 years ever.
You were always so loyal to us
& the kids adored you especially Harry.

Go and bark and run as much as you can and enjoy meeting new doggy friends.
Hopefully you'll find Buster and are best friends again.

Until we meet again enjoy life pain free
my beautiful girl, rainbow bridge has gained a loving, loyal staff.

Forever missed & remembered
