

Max

Its been year now since you have been gone though it seems like yesterday that you were taken away from me.
I miss you when I come home I miss my special greeting and the unconditional love you gave me.

I know I did the best thing for you were ill & it would have only got worse for you over time.
But that doesn't help the pain in my heart at losing you.

You were our first dog a loving yorkie with a big heart and personality.

I love & miss you Max you are always in my heart
