Joan

We miss you so much our special little puss.
You have left us heartbroken and distraught.
The house is so empty without you.
No more purrs and rubs to greet us,
no more paws at 4 am for breakfast,
no more late night cuddles and head nudges,
no more chin rubs.

Thank you dear Joan the Cat for finding us all those years ago & thank you for making your home in ours.
We would not have changed a thing.
We are glad you were so happy with us
and we will never forget you.
You left us with so many treasured memories.

So be free from pain our precious girl, run free and wild.
Until we meet again & cross that Rainbow Bridge
together you will be right here in our hearts.

We know Old Deuteronomy will make you a Jellicle Cat and your special spot is already reserved
in the Heaviside Layer.
So farewell JTC until we meet again,
sweet dreams little puss.
