Teddy

Teddy came to us six years ago to teach us strength and love for life. He was the strongest and the bravest little dog.

In spite of being treated very cruelly in the first half of his life, he trusted us and enjoyed life to the fullest.

He was a fighter. He made us laugh.
He made us happy.
He was a wonderful friend to our other fluffy companion, Misia.

We had a wonderful time together,
we are forever grateful for Teddy.
