Our Little Tom

You had so many nicknames,

"Mummy's boy,
Angel &
Gorgeous Boy"

You were spoilt rotten,
but we should have got to spoil you for years to come.
You were and still are our beautiful angel.

We all love you so much, the hole in out hearts
can be plastered over but not filled...
there will always be a void without you.

Good luck when you meet all the relatives that are waiting for you in heaven they will drive you mad.

Rest peacefully my little man and wait for us up there.

Lots of love
Jay, Chloe and your Mummy
