PEDRO

You have been the perfect companion
for the last 11 years of my life,
with kindness and in silence you taught me what true love and gratitude are, you knew how to comfort me when I was sad by coming next to me,
placing your paws on my chest and purring.

I could stare at you for endless moments without getting tired, through your big eyes I could see the world in colours.
Thank you for taking care of me
and forgive me if I could not help more.
You will always live in my heart.
