Rocky

Loving and loyal,
a friend through and
through,
how in the world can I
live life without you?

I've known you since you
were just a scrappy little pup.
Fighting to survive,
And you never gave up.
I watched you grow into a beautiful friend.

Back in those days,
I could not imagine this end.
But now it is all over,
And you're truly gone.
Somehow I'll find a way
to try to carry on.
I'll keep your little photo
hung up on my wall,
and I'll always remember you
as the very best dog of all.

We miss you so much Rocky
