Baxter & Marbles

To our best friends,

We love you now & always and miss you so, so much.
I know your ok, as you're with Marbles, who followed you three days after with a broken heart, due to missing you.

We miss you boys, stay together and wait for us until we all meet up again. You sure have left a big void behind but we know you both gave us so much love, laughter and happiness memories we will treasure for the rest of our lives.

We could never had imagined what a beautiful rescue dog you were Baxter & a gorgeous cat Marbles, who so many people adored & loved because you were both such wonderful natured characters, ones that could never be replaced.

God bless you both, thinking of you each and every day, you meant the world to us.
Love your family
