Yumi Blitz

My Darling Pug Yumi has flown up to Rainbow Bridge, you were always there to love and comfort me with an undying love no human can give.
You came to me in my time in great need,
I realised God had sent me a little Earth Angel.
I loved you and will always love you,
your still in my heart and at my side.
I miss you but, I feel comforted when I look at your photos.
By God in Heaven you can run and play pain free.
One day we re-unite in Heaven.
God Bless my Baby girl
